Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1, 2, and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Maehara in view of Corbett, Jr.

Maehara discloses the use of a keyboard instrument with a keyboard arranged approximately at a center portion of the housing; in which a plurality of keys are arranged on a keybed (1a) and a plurality of actions (43) are arranged in connection with the plurality of keys respectively, the keyboard(1b)apparatus comprising a pedal link mechanism (13,14,15,20); including a pedal lever(6) for transmitting operation of a pedal, arranged on a base board of the housing, to at least one of the plurality of actions (43)-, and a keybed reinforcing member that is arranged under the keybed so as to pivotally support the pedal lever thereunder.

Maehara does not disclose the use of a keyboard with a key (36) reinforcing member (40) fixed to a lower section of the keybed.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the instrument as disclosed by Maehara with eh reinforcement member as disclosed by Corbett in order to provide an efficient means of supporting a piano key.

Art Unit: 2837

3. Claims 3-5 and 7-10 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
